

Rabbit Answers

1. Rabbits measure up to 40cm from nose to the base of the tail.

2. The tail is 5-8cm long.

3. Yes. Male rabbits, called 'bucks', are bigger than females, called 'does'.

4. Rabbits are mostly active by night, especially at dawn and dusk.

5. Rabbits live in woodland, farmland, grassland, sand dunes and gardens. Sandy soil is easiest for them to dig.

6. A rabbit's underground home is called a 'warren'.

7. A mother rabbit can have 3-7 babies every month, for 6 months, so that could be up to 42, in one year!!

8. The kittens are born from March to August.

9. Most wild rabbits live for 1-3 years.

10. Rabbits only eat plants, so they are herbivores.

(C) All images are from Canva